We can tell things about characters by looking at the following characteristics (STEAL):  Characterization S.T.E.A.L. Speech: What does the character say? How do they say it? What is their tone? Their word choice? Thoughts: What does the character think? What do we learn from their thoughts & ideas? Effects: What is this character's effect on others? How do they interact with other characters? Actions: What does this character do? How do they behave? What can we learn from their actions? Looks: What does this character look like? What can we learn from how they present themselves to others?  Click here to access a worksheet that lets you practice STEAL. Use your favorite character from a movie, TV show, or book to work through the chart.	Find a friend and click here to challenge yourself with this homographs game!
