ESOL Choice Board for Grades 9-12

Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Remember, the theme of a	Adverbs are words that	Click here to access the "Native	Click here to write a story is very rarely stated.	describe a verb, and	Land" map. This map shows	letter to your future
You have to use what you	adjective, or another	what Native American tribes	self. Practice your have read and know to	adverb. Adverbs tell	lived in different parts of the	first-person make an inference about	when, where, why, or	Americas prior to European	narrative writing the theme.	under what conditions	colonization. Type your zip	skills by telling something happens or	code into the "search" bar on	future you Look back at yesterday's	happened. Most adverbs	the main page to see what	everything that one page summary guide	end in –ly.	tribe(s) used to call this land	happened today,
about finding theme and		home.	both good and bad, utilize the 5 steps for	Click here to play an		and make sure to
, .	adverbs matching game!	a stationen an	click "5 years"
-			before you send.
films linked below:	happily carefully very sadly loudly joyfully	And a second sec
Coin Operated Click here		Wind Apache (Chamman Servee	(ulucomo
Silent Click here	energencung nervousig	voene (Yaqui) Alazabas Semitole	futureme
Dia de los Muertos Click		Perice Guardine Guard
here
	Remember, the theme of a story is very rarely stated. You have to use what you have read and know to make an inference about the theme. Look back at yesterday's one page summary guide about finding theme and utilize the 5 steps for identifying theme outlined therein to analyze the short films linked below: Coin Operated Click here Silent Click here Dia de los Muertos Click	Remember, the theme of a story is very rarely stated. You have to use what you have read and know to make an inference about the theme.Adverbs are words that describe a verb, and adjective, or another adverb. Adverbs tell when, where, why, or under what conditions something happens or happened. Most adverbs end in -ly.Look back at yesterday's one page summary guide about finding theme and utilize the 5 steps for identifying theme outlined therein to analyze the short films linked below:Click here to play an adverbs matching game!Coin Operated Click here Silent Click here Dia de los Muertos Clickhappelly carefully very sadly loudly joyfully angrily quietly carelessly energetically nervously	Remember, the theme of a story is very rarely stated. You have to use what you have read and know to make an inference about the theme. Look back at yesterday's one page summary guide about finding theme and utilize the 5 steps for identifying theme outlined therein to analyze the short films linked below: Coin Operated Click here Silent Click here Dia de los Muertos Click