

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

Click here to listen to "Lola Goes to School"! Share with a family member how Lola prepares for school, describing the steps she takes first, next, and last.

Listening

Click here to listen to "Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus." The bus driver needs your assistance! He has to leave for a short time, and the pigeon is not permitted to drive the bus. Will you lend a hand to the bus driver?

Speaking

Click here to join Mo Willems, an author, and illustrator, for a drawing lesson! In this video, Mo will guide you through the process of drawing the Pigeon. Share the step-by-step instructions with a family member or friend.

Speaking

Click here to play Would You Rather! Would you prefer being cold or hot all the time? Would you rather eat a hot dogs for an entire month or pizza for a whole month? Once you've finished playing, create your own Would You Rather questions! Invite family and friends to join in on the fun.

 How does Lola prepare for school? Lola's preparation involves several steps. First, she packs her backpack with essentials like pencils, a water bottle, and extra clothes. Next, Lola selects her outfit, and her mom helps her brush her hair. Lastly, Lola's mom drives her to school, stays for a while, and then bids her farewell. At school, Lola engages in learning, singing, and playing with her classmates.

 What does the Pigeon want to do, and how does he attempt to convince the reader to let him drive the bus? The Pigeon wants to drive the bus and tries to persuade the reader to allow him to ride the bus. First, he begs, then claims his cousin Herb drives a bus. Next, he attempts to turn driving the bus into a game. After throwing a tantrum, he eventually gets over his desire to drive the bus.

 "I began by drawing a large letter 'O' followed by a smaller 'O' inside it, which I then colored in as the eye. For the beak, I drew a sideways letter 'M,' and for the neck, I added two lines going down. To create the body, I combined a half-circle and a half-triangle. Lastly, I drew two lines for the legs and added the letter 'V' for each foot."

 "I would prefer to be cold all the time because I can layer up to stay warm. Given the choice, I'd rather eat pizza than hot dogs since pizza is my favorite food. Additionally, I would rather spend a day at the beach than at the zoo, as I enjoy swimming."