Listening

Click here to listen to "Superheroes Are Everywhere," written and read by Kamala Harris. What did you enjoy most about the story? Can you identify some real-life superheroes you've encountered?

 What was your favorite part of the story? "My favorite part of the story was learning that superheroes can be anyone! The book shows us Kamala Harris' life and teaches us that we all have the power to make the world a better place. For me, my mom is my superhero because her hugs have a magical touch that makes me feel warm and strong."

Listening

Click here to join Miss Penny and the KidVision Kids on a field trip to the Sawgrass Nature Center. Discover the wild animals that inhabit our backyards and share your newfound knowledge with a family member or friend.

 What did you learn? "I learned about various creatures, including birds, reptiles, mammals, and marsupials. I discovered how to handle situations when encountering injured animals and the importance of being responsible towards the wildlife around us."

Speaking
