

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

Listening

Listening

Listening

Speaking

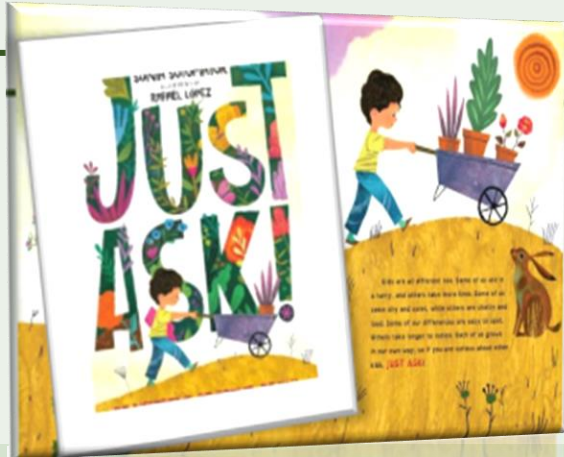

Speaking

Speaking

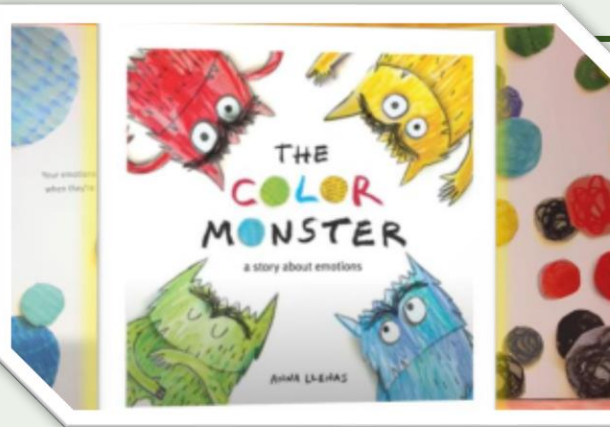

Speaking

Click here to listen to "Just Ask!" by Sonia Sotomayor. The story emphasizes the value of curiosity, communication, and celebrating differences.

 What was the story about? "Just Ask!" is a story about twelve young people collaborating to plant a garden. Each child contributes to the project in their own unique way, showing the value of diverse abilities and teamwork.

Click here to listen to "The Color Monster: A Story About Emotions" by Anna Llenas. In the story, the Color Monster sorts his mixed-up emotions with the help of a young girl who guides him through identifying and categorizing his feelings using different colors.

 How does the Color Monster sort his mixed-up emotions? The Monster sorts his mixed-up emotions by identifying and naming each emotion with the help of a young girl. As he recognizes his feelings, he transforms into a solid color representing that emotion.

Click here to watch "Kids Describe Made Up Animals to Koji the Illustrator." After watching the video, create your own unique animal and describe its appearance, habits, and environment to a friend or family member.

 "My created animal resembles a dragon, featuring five pairs of wings, a unicorn horn, wheels for feet, and releases purple glitter when it roars. I named this unique dragon Sunflower Rainbow."

Click here to learn the meaning of "conflict" with the Two-Headed Monster. Conflict refers to a disagreement or argument between two or more people. Share the definition with a friend or family member and then describe a personal experience where you resolved a conflict.

 "Conflict refers to a disagreement or argument between two or more people. For instance, my sister and I once had a conflict over pizza preferences; she wanted cheese pizza, while I preferred pizza with toppings. We resolved the conflict by agreeing to order half cheese and half topped pizza."