Listening

Click here to go on a virtual field trip with Ms. Penny and the KidVision Pre-K kids to the "Amazon Voyage" exhibit at the Patricia and Phillip Frost Museum of Science. Learn about stingrays, anacondas, and much more during this exciting adventure!

Amazon River Exhibit

 What did you learn about? "I learned that the Amazon River is located in the South American continent, specifically in Brazil. I also learned about maps and how stingrays and anacondas use camouflage to blend with their surroundings."

Listening

Click here to listen to "Wemberly Worried" by Kevin Henkes. Wemberly worried about everything—big things, little things, and everything in between. When it was time for school to start, Wemberly worried even more. What does Wemberly realize that helps her stop worrying?

 What does Wemberly realize that helps her stop worrying? Wemberly worried about one thing most of all: her first day of school. However, when it's time to go back to school and she meets a fellow worrywart in her class, Wemberly realizes that school is too much fun to waste time worrying!

Speaking

Click here to play Animal Home Builder. Build a home for an animal, and then create a story about the animal you built the home for. Don't forget to talk about the materials you used to construct the home!

 "I built a home for Daphne, a lost used green, yellow, red, and blue as the colors for Daphne's home. I added a scratching post by hammering the nails to the base. Daphne was thrilled to be in her new home!"

Speaking

Click here to create postcards around the world. Explore countries like Germany, Kenya, China, and many more. Tell an adult everything you learned! Which was your favorite country to learn about?

 "I learned that the German flag has three stripes and is colored black, red, and yellow. Did you know that pretzels are a German food? I also learned that Germany has an autobahn, which is a highway without a speed limit!"
