

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

Click here to take a virtual field trip to the Sawgrass Nature Center, where you'll meet Bee Lady Kim and discover the fascinating world of honeybees! Learn all about how these amazing insects make honey and share your new knowledge with a family member.

 How do bees communicate with other bees to find delicious flowers? Bees communicate the location of flowers by performing a dance called the bee dance. During this dance, bees shake their abdomens to inform other bees about the flower locations.

Listening

Get ready to dance and sing along with Pinkalicious, her brother, and their friend Robotta the robot by Clicking here! After grooving to the music, show off your cool new moves to a family member and tell them all about the fun steps you learned from Pinkalicious.

 What specific dance moves do the characters do and sing about? the characters perform and sing about various dance moves inspired by robots. They start with a "Blip Blop" sound and then extend their legs out and back in. They encourage others to join in and dance like a robot.

Speaking

Click here to explore "Cantando (Singing) De Colores," a bilingual book in both Spanish and English. After reading this story, share your favorite part with a family member.

 "The readers making animal noises added a fun element to the story. It was enjoyable to listen to the story in both English and Spanish."

Speaking

Click here create a one-of-a-kind Hero Self Portrait! Look into a mirror, observe your features, and let your creativity flow. Once you've finished your work of art, share it with a family member and tell them all about your artistic process!

 "Looking into the mirror, I observe my curly, brown hair. the words that best describe me include kind, caring, helpful, organized, great friend, and loving big sister."