

ESOL Choice Board: Grades 9-12

Listening Activity

Click here to view an explanation of how linking verbs work.

Speaking Activity

Click here to watch “A Voyage to the Moon,” one of the very first films ever made.

Can you believe how different movies used to be?

Tell your art teacher about what you saw.

Reading Activity

Remember, sequence is often used when an author’s purpose is to give instructions or explain how something came to be.

Review this list of common signal words that indicate sequential events:

Beginning
• Once upon a time / Once there was
• In the beginning
• First of all
Middle
• Meanwhile
• After that
• Suddenly
End
• In the end
• Finally
• After all

Writing Activity

Sequence the events of your life using Tiki-Toki! Click here to access the online timeline maker (Free account required). Can you use some of the sequence words you learned yesterday?

Bonus: Can you make a timeline of your life in your home language?

