24-25 School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

In addition to the LEA's Parent and Family Engagement Policy (P1230), each Title I.A school must jointly develop with parents of participating children a written Parent and Family Engagement Policy. The school policy shall be distributed to parents and made available to the local community. The school policy must be reviewed annually and updated as needed to meet the changing needs of parents, families and the school. Parents shall be notified of the policies in an understandable and uniform format. To the extent practicable, the policy shall be provided in a language the parents can understand. If the school has a Parent and Family Engagement Policy, that policy may be amended to meet the federal policy requirements.

Program Evaluation Results

How does your school seek and obtain the agreement of parents to the parent and family engagement policy?

At the Title 1 meetings held at Ashland Elementary, parents receive the School-Parent Compact and the School Parent and Family Engagement Policy. For those unable to attend, packets are sent home. Additionally, this information is available on the school's website. The School-Parent Compact is signed by all parties.

What are the strengths of family and community engagement?

Overall, the programs and events organized by the school this year have been well-received. Highlights include: Grandparents Day, Open House, Winter Program, Black History Program, Literacy Night, Fall Festival, Awards Ceremony, and various showcases. A key strength is the ability of parents to serve as residents in the school, parents are able to present skills such as cooking, hair braiding, art and music.
What are the weaknesses of family and community engagement?
While we offer monthly PTO and family engagement activities, we need to improve parent participation and attendance. For events like the Winter Program, attendance is strong, but events like Literacy Night see much lower turnout compared to overall enrollment.
What are the needs identified pertaining to family and community engagement?
The identified needs for family and community engagement include boosting parent involvement during academic sessions like parent conferences, offering parenting workshops focused on effective parental support, and providing job and housing resources. Additionally, our community would benefit from programs that support families in transition with housing and transportation. We provide food, clothing and hygiene products for the whole family. Housing is a large concern contributing to mobility and attendance deficits which impact academic growth.
Policy Involvement
How are parents involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the Schoolwide plan?
Ashland Elementary invites parents to join the School Planning Committee, where they can actively participate in shaping the schoolwide plan. This plan is also shared with families during PTO meetings. Additionally, families have the opportunity to provide input on school programming through the Panorama survey, conducted twice a year. Monthly “How are we doing surveys that contain three question are sent to parent monthly. The feedback collected from this survey is used to make necessary adjustments to the plan.
How are parents involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy?
Parents are informed and given the opportunity to attend Title 1 meetings held in the fall and spring. These meetings cover the Annual Evaluation Guidance and Planning Tool, ESSA Compliant Procedures, Parents Right to Know, School-Parent Compact, and School Parent and Family Engagement Policy. Parents are invited to a revision meeting prior to the finalization of the and School Parent and Family Engagement Policy.
How is timely information about the Title I.A program provided to parents and families?
Families receive notifications through various channels. The principal distributes the Ashland Parents and Family Newsletter and calendar each month. Additionally, Ashland Elementary maintains a bulletin board displaying all monthly events and meetings. Information is also available via Class Dojo and the school website. The Family and Community Specialist sends out flyers and notices promptly to ensure parents have the opportunity to attend events. Teachers regularly post updates on Class Dojo to provide parents with ample notification of current and upcoming events.
What are the methods and plans to provide an explanation of curriculum, assessments and MAP achievement levels to parents and families?
Curriculum Nights are scheduled throughout the school year beginning in October, where families learn about grade level expectations/standards that students and teachers are held accountable for mastering. After the overview of the curriculum, families engage in fun-interactive games from the highlighted curriculum area. During the bi-annual Title 1 meetings, the principal reviews the curriculum, assessments, and MAP achievement levels. Additionally, parent conferences focus on student progress based on STAR and MAP assessments, and further information is provided during Parent Teacher Conferences.

In carrying out the parent and family engagement requirements, the school, to the extent practicable, provides opportunities for the informed participation of parents and families including:

- ✓ Parents and family members who have limited English proficiency

- ✓ Provides information and school reports in a format and language parents understand

Ashland Elementary is committed to inclusive parent and family engagement, accommodating all needs regardless of English proficiency, disability, migratory status, or language. We recognize that parent involvement is crucial to student success, leading to better academic outcomes and positive attitudes. To support this, we will ensure that parents stay informed and have access to resources that meet the needs of families in the community. One of Ashland's core beliefs is that we are a hub where every member of the community belongs and finds hope.

Summary Statements

Summary of the Strengths

Ashland provides a variety of opportunities for parents and care givers to participate with the instructional programs and student activities. The overall perception of families is very positive. Panaroma Survey data shows that 87% of the parent's rate Ashland high in terms of meeting the needs of the whole child. Families look to Ashland for food, clothing, hygiene, dental, medical and vision needs. In the 2024-2025 school year we plan to increase the advertisement of resources available at and through the school to increase the number of families that utilize our services and increase the home/school partnership. We will use social media, class dojo, flyers, posters, newsletters and community meetings to spread the word. We continue to struggle with attendance and an increasing number of families in transition. Our single grade-level classrooms hold large numbers of students who present multiple grade levels behind. With current staffing allocations we struggle to meet the needs of all learners. Some students present unique concerns that stretch our ability such as physical, medical and developmental delays.

Summary of the Weaknesses

Teachers require additional professional development and support to deliver instruction that is affirming and relevant to students' identities and experiences.

While there has been an increase in the number of students proficient in both Reading and Math, only 26% of students in grades 1-5 are currently reading at or above grade level, and 15.8% are performing at or above grade level in Math, according to end-of-year screening data. Teachers are continuing to develop their skills in scaffolding instruction and understanding student mastery through diverse assessment methods. Staff has on-going need of reaching the high bar set for student growth 2.5 years.

The procedures established by the Attendance Team have been effective in addressing the root causes of attendance concerns, Attendance issues continue overtime with the same families and an effective solution has not yet been developed to reach all involved. Although school discipline incidents are declining, there is an ongoing need for staff to reflect on and enhance their use of restorative practices and culturally responsive instructional strategies. Pre-K to 1st-grade students have the highest rates of behavior incidents, highlighting the need for additional support and intervention for school staff.

Summary of the Needs

Teachers require ongoing instructional support in implementing the ELA and Math curriculum, with a particular focus on scaffolding grade-level content for students who are significantly below grade level. Additional support is also needed for teachers to effectively utilize district curriculum programs, developmental scope and sequence (the what and when to teach) and make content relevant and affirming for students.

Weekly Meeting Note will be placed in an on-line folder with resource links for review after meetings. Weekly meetings serve to support academics in reading and math increasing internalization and understanding of instructional strategies such as chunking, chorale reading, time stamping and economy of language.

Students who are reading significantly below grade level will receive additional support from support staff to address unfinished foundational learning in phonics and phonemic awareness.

Continued support from Therapist, ISS Monitor, Counselor, and a full-time Social Worker will ensure a team-based approach to addressing students' social-emotional needs.
