

Le verbe venir 112

1. Study the forms of the present tense of venir (to come). And complete:

| VENIR présent | VENIR passé composé  | VENIR imparfait | VENIR plus-que-parfait |
|---------------|----------------------|-----------------|------------------------|
| Je viens      | Je suis venu(e)      |                 |                        |
| Tu viens      | Tu es venu(e)        |                 |                        |
| Il vient      | Il est venu          |                 |                        |
| Nous venons   | Nous sommes venu(e)s |                 |                        |
| Vous venez    | Vous êtes venu(e)(s) |                 |                        |
| Ils viennent  | Ils sont venus       |                 |                        |

Tu viens avec nous au cinéma?

Tous les ans, beaucoup de touristes viennent en France.

2. The verbs revenir (to come back) and devenir (to become) are conjugated the same way as venir. Their past participles are venu, revenu, and devenu. These verbs are conjugated with être in the passé composé.

Elle est devenue très riche et elle est revenue dans son village natal.

3. Venir de + infinitif

Study this idiom:

Je viens de finir mes devoirs.      I just finished my homework.

Je venais de finir mes devoirs quand il est arrivé.    I had just finished my homework when he arrived.

Traduis:

Is Jack coming tonight?

Do you often come here?

He didn't come last week.

The two friends did not come together.

How about you, are you coming tonight?

Are they coming with you?

I just ate.

I had just gotten off the phone when you called me.